Overview: The Drops of Heaven chevron blanket features a modern design using mainly single crochet (SC) and the bobble stitch (B). This blanket would be suitable as a baby blanket or you can increase the size and make an eye catching blanket for your living or bedroom. This blanket can be made using varying yarn weights and types but adjust your hook size accordingly.

Materials:

3 balls of 100g/270m DK yarn in white
1 balls of 100g/270m DK yarn in grey
1 balls of 100g/270m DK yarn in mustard

4.5 mm hook
Scissors
20cm x20cm piece of cardboard
Yarn needle

Size Information

The pattern repeat for this blanket is 25 +5. If you would like to alter the width of the blanket increase by creating multiples of 25 then add 5 at the end. Each multiple of 25 results in one peak of the chevron. This pattern uses a starting chain of 155 which equates to 6 peaks plus the additional 5 chains needed at the end (25x6=150 then +5).

Approximate finished size of blanket 70cm by 90cm (not including length of tassels).

Gauge/tension:

A 10cmx10cm square using 4.5mm should measure 22 stiches by 12 rows. Please see notes for further information about a practice swatch.

Abbreviations:

Ch- chain
SC- Single crochet
B- Bobble stitch
St- stitch
YO- yarn over
CC- change colour

Special stitches:

The bobble stitch (B) for this blanket is created by completing the following steps into the same stitch:

YO, insert hook, YO, pull through, YO and pull through the first two loops on the hook. Repeat this once more then YO, insert hook, YO and pull through, YO, pull through the first two loops and then YO and pull through ALL four loops on the hook. That is one bobble stitch complete.

If you would like your bobbles more prominent add another YO, insert hook, YO, pull through, YO and pull through the first two loops on the hook.

Notes:

- It is recommended that you do a practice swatch to test your tension before completing the pattern. Ch 55 and complete first 15 rows. If you find the sides of swatch are curling, try going up a hook size or two. If you would like increased drape, try going up a hook size. Tight tension may result in a smaller blanket so it is very important that you do a practice swatch.
- To change colour (CC) complete last YO of SC at end of row in new colour.
- Where pattern says repeat*, repeat instructions inside the pair of asterisk * *.
- Counting in row one is essential to the success of the blanket.
- The turning chain is not counted as a stitch.
- At the beginning of each row, insert your hook into the base of Ch1.
- The bobbles should always be facing away from you when working on a bobble row. The bobbles should all face the front side of the blanket once complete.
- When completing the next row after the bobbles (row 21) it can be difficult to find the SC in between the bobbles. Be sure that you don't skip these SC stitches as this will affect all other rows. Just remember that you want 11 Sts up, 3 in the middle, 11 Sts down.

The pattern now repeats from row 1 until desired length achieved. For this pattern, I repeated this 4 times. Finish blanket with 15 rows of white (rows 1-15).

Final touches:

Weave in ends.

No border is required for this blanket.

Tassels:

1. Fold 20cm by 20cm piece of cardboard in half for extra durability
2. Wrap mustard yarn 20 times around length of cardboard.
3. Cut a separate 20cm length of mustard yarn and use needle to thread the yarn under the top of all strands of yarn that are wrapped around the cardboard.
4. Tie threaded strand of yarn very tightly.
5. Cut bottom of all strands wrapped around the cardboard.
6. Cut another 20cm length of mustard yarn. Wrap several times around the top of the tassel, approximately 15mm down from the top. Tie off.
7. Use needle to thread the ends of the wrapped length under the wrap. This should hide the knot.
8. Repeat to create 15 tassels.
9. Trim tassels to desired length.
10. Tie tassels tightly to each point on the blanket. Thread spare ends down through the wrapped section and trim.

If the tassels are wrinkled, steam lightly before tying onto blanket.
